Did You Know...

Sweet Cecily, Pennyroyal, Costmary Melissa are all related Manners?

Hilling up of roses is recommended for winter protection.

When growing plants under artificial light, is the proper distance to the light source measured from the top of the plant or the rim of the pot?

One gardener's trash is another gardener's treasure!

Things you would like to share or swap.

I have a Huge euphorbia cactus that needs a new home. It stands well over 7 feet high and needs a heavy pot to stabilize it. It would be great in a room with high ceilings and lots of sun.

Please let me know if you would like to save this plant from death. We have no room for it any more and my family can't take it. Email me or call me please.

Thanks, Melinda Smith

I have a dining room table Duncan Phyfe Style legs that I would like to sell. Contact JoEllen
